23. Please note the following explanations for differences from previous annual reports: 1) The number of Distance Education programs we are reporting is fewer than previous reports. Previously, a loose definition of what constituted a "Distance Education" program was applied. From this point forward, Fresno City College defines "Distance Education Programs" as major degrees that can be 100% satisfied with either courses that are fully online and/or a combination of courses that are fully online and 50% or more online. Reported programs in the past were not considered under this definition. It is expected that certificate programs may have also been included when 21 programs were reported for 3 consecutive years. An agreed upon definition was also most likely absent. 2) The headcount data reported for 2016 Fall will vary from previously submitted ACCJC Annual reports due to the change in our internal data system. Some job placement rates for past years were also updated by some programs.

The data included in this report are certified as a complete and accurate representation of the reporting institution
